" Two Zero One Six "

Works by class of 2016 Fine Arts Baroda

(wood cuts, sculpture installation, oils, video installation, etchings, litho)

14 artist from The college of Fine Arts Baroda - print makers, sculpture artist student of the painting department and video installation artist come together to exhibit their works in 'Two Zero One Six'.

A healthy conceit of reality and influences of cultures and values that they carry from their surroundings and homes. They are moulded by memories of childhood and experiences of past at home from diverse culture value system and socio economic political influences yet its observed the objects may have been picked up from past but it's used to break boundaries.
